The 1920 census is the tenth federal census conducted in the United States. Federal census records are the only records that list all residents of the United States. If you live in the U.S. and were born before 1920, then you should be in the 1920 census. The 1920 census includes many details about individuals and families, including relationship, gender, age, birthplace, year of immigration, home ownership, and literacy.
